

Andrea Rigoni
Senior Partner - EU Digital Policy Center Director
Deloitte Risk Advisory

Andrea Rigoni has been working in Cyber Security for more than 30 years. Andrea is a Senior Partner in Deloitte Risk Advisory where he leads Cyber in the Government and Public Services industry in Europe and the Middle East, working with many large governments and international organizations to improve their Cyber strategies and capabilities. Andrea also leads the Deloitte EU Digital Policy Center in Brussels.

Andrea joined Deloitte through the acquisition of his company Intellium, which he co-founded as a spin-off of Booz Allen Hamilton, where he worked previously. Andrea also served in the Italian Prime Minister's office between 2013 and 2014 as an advisor to Cybersecurity: in his role, Andrea developed the Italian Digital Identity framework and co-developed the Italian National Cybersecurity strategy and framework. Andrea is also an advisor to the UN/ITU on Cybersecurity, as well as a member of the Global Forum for Cyber Expertise (GFCE).

He continues to support the Italian government's strategy on Cyber and he is an advisor to many international organizations such as the United Nations and NATO.
