

Dimos Karalis

Policy Adviser – Cybersecurity & Innovation European Banking Federation

Dimos Karalis is Policy Adviser for Cybersecurity and Innovation at the European Banking Federation (EBF), with a main focus on cybersecurity and AI. Prior to EBF, he held various roles on EU affairs in Brussels at the European Parliament, the European Economic and Social Committee (EESC), a consultancy and a trade association, after working as a lawyer in Greece.

He holds a Bachelor of Laws from the Aristotle University of Thessaloniki and a MA in International Relations and EU Studies from Leiden University.